- General Qualifications of Enrollment
- Required Documents
- Registration Process

Introduction

Ahlul Bayt International University was established in 1999, with the approval of the Ministry of Science, Research and Technology, under the name "Ahlul Bayt Higher Education Center." In 2014, based on an approved resolution, it was upgraded to a comprehensive international university. Its mission is to advance academic knowledge and meet the research and specialized needs of Muslim students and researchers from around the world in various fields of study.

Ahlul Bayt International University is unique in Iran, with over 90% of its students being non-Iranian, representing more than 30 nationalities. To date, nearly 1,000 of its postgraduate alumni are employed in their home countries.

The university boasts excellent facilities and a beautiful campus in Iran. With dedicated and distinguished faculty members, it annually hosts professors and researchers from across the globe for study opportunities. It also admits numerous talented students in various fields and academic levels, offering both scholarship and non-scholarship options.

Why Ahlul Bayt International University?

- A scientific environment with a pleasant atmosphere in the capital of the Islamic Republic of Iran
- Cultural and national diversity of students
- The only university in Iran with more than 90 percent international students
- The first university in Iran to have an international innovation center with the aim of linking knowledge, industry, and commerce
- Possibility of studying in English in some fields and degree levels
- University
- Winner of the Soraya National Award for attracting international students
- Has the AZFA center (Persian language education for non-Persian speakers)

The general qualifications of enrollment for international students

General Conditions for Admission of Foreign Students:

- Not holding Iranian citizenship
- Possessing physical and mental health
- Holding a high school diploma for the bachelor's level, a bachelor's degree for the master's level, and a master's degree for the doctoral level
- Having a minimum GPA of 14 out of 20 or the equivalent of 60 out of 100 for admission to bachelor's, master's, and doctoral levels (for all fields of study)
- Being a maximum of 32 years old for the bachelor's level, 36 years old for the master's level, and 40 years old for the doctoral level
- In case of applying for a university scholarship, being a maximum of 24 years old for the bachelor's level, 28 years old for the master's level, and 33 years old for the doctoral level
- Note: Applicants can apply for admission to the university after completing their program and before receiving their degree or defending their thesis. However, this admission is contingent upon receiving the degree or defending the thesis before the start of the semester and registration. Clearly, if the degree is not presented, the applicant's admission will be canceled.
- Educational documents and transcripts must be approved by the Ministry of Education/Higher Education and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the applicant's home country, as well as the representation of the Islamic Republic of Iran in that country. Presenting the original approved documents is mandatory upon arrival at the university.
- Changing the field of study is strictly prohibited during the academic program. The maximum duration allowed for dormitory residency is 8 semesters for Undergraduate (Bachelor's) and Ph.D. students, and 4 semesters for Master's students. Upon completion of this period (allowed academic years), students are required to vacate and leave the dormitory.
- The responsibility for obtaining a student visa rests solely with the student, and the university bears no responsibility or liability in the event of a visa rejection. It is understood that in the event of a visa rejection, any fees paid to the university's account are non-refundable.
- Studying is only permitted in the specific degree level and field chosen by the applicant. Changing the field of study is strictly prohibited throughout the entire academic program
